

SCANIA TRUCK GEAR

MAN & WOMAN 2007

THE ADVENTURE CONTINUES.

Our clothing for drivers has nearly everything you could ask for. Created for a tough life on the road and a smart life when you get home, the clothing uses clever materials and has the right details in the right places. And it has been created for people who know how it feels to drive a special vehicle of a certain make.

There was really only one thing missing from our first collection.

We now present Scania Truck Gear for women too.

We got some of our drivers to test-drive the gear in La Jonquera, Spain.

Stop by your nearest Scania retailer and you can do the same.

See you on the road.

“You get plenty of time to think when you’re behind the wheel.”

SCANIA LOGO T-SHIRT, AZALEA

- I've been driving trucks for three years. During that time, I've driven through eleven European countries from big cities to tiny communities in the countryside.
- I particularly enjoy driving around Norway. It's like a fairy tale - all the valleys, mountains and waterways are so beautiful. Driving through Slovenia on the way to Austria is also very nice and I always look forward to the warm weather down in Spain.
- I'd really like to drive through Australia sometime. I love animals and nature, so I think I'd have a lot to see. But my favourite route is still somewhere in Sweden, where my family, my dog and my friends are always nearby. I spend a lot of time behind the wheel thinking about them and what I'm going to do after work.
- Because of that, I'm on the phone a lot, that is, when I'm not listening to music and singing along at the top of my lungs. I listen to the radio a lot, CD's seem to play up in this stereo

My father is a driver, and spending many holidays as a kid in the cab of his truck, I learned to love this profession where you're often alone but also free. I'm mostly interested in trucks and high-performance engines and I especially love driving and listening to the hum of my truck. That's what keeps me going, ten years on.

Driving a high-quality truck is important to me. I dream of restoring my favourite trucks and modifying them, for example a Scania 143 with 450 horsepower and an aerodynamic cab with large vents up front, or a Scania T Topline 144 with 530 horsepower, coated with metallic paint and clear varnish, with a luxurious and stylish interior.

In my spare time, I enjoy looking for nice trucks on the Internet. I also work a lot in my garden - it's good to spend time outdoors after so many hours behind the wheel.

My mother says that driving trucks is like a drug for me. When I was little, I used to sit behind the wheel of a parked truck and pretend I was driving off somewhere. I had already made up my mind then. Now I've been driving professionally for five years and my goal is to take over the family trucking business.

My love of the road and of trucking is the foundation of all of this, but being a business woman as well is an exciting challenge. I'd like to become as successful as my parents. To achieve that, the business will have to keep developing and I'll have to be good at managing more than 30 drivers.

Working hard, keeping a cool head and knowing what I want will also be important. A great deal happens every day, and I'll have to be able to make decisions on the spot.

If I achieve my goal, perhaps my children will take over the company in the future. That would make me very proud.
